The United Nations declared 2016 as the International Year of Pulses (IYP). Pulse crops are a critical and ancient part of the food basket. They are food you already enjoy! It's time this vital crop had its time in the sunshine!

Specific objectives of the International Year of pulses 2016

- Raise awareness about the importance of pulses in sustainable food production and healthy diets and their contribution to food security and nutrition.
- Promote the value and utilization of pulses throughout the food system, their benefits for soil fertility and climate change and for combating malnutrition.
