HONBLE SUPREME COURT DISMISSED TWO SPECIAL LEAVE PETITIONS WITH REGARDS TO ATTENDANCE ISSUE IN FAVOUR OF MITHIBAI COLLEGE.

A SECOND YEAR B.Com student approached the Honble Highcourt since she was debarred on 7th March ,2020pleading Honble Highcourt to grant her relief .Later Special leave petitions were filed on her behalf in the Honourable Supreme court SLP one to grant her the relief and SLP 2 to Impugned the order of Highcourt dated 12th March 2020 with regard to petition filed by 107 debarred students of Mithibai college Autonomous.

Today Honourable Supreme court had dismissed both the SLPs.It was mentioned by Honourable bench of Supreme court.Students might feel college discipline of attendance is harsh but in the long run it is going to be beneficial for students .

Later today in the Afternoon Honourable Highcourt also disposed off the petition filed by above S.Y.B.Com student thereby closing the matter in favour of Mithibai college Autonomous .

Quote:

“We at the Mithibai college do not want to impose attendance rules as punishment to the students .Ours is Autonomous College providing skill based competitive curriculum .We take care of students’ academics by providing quality education with experienced faculty .We also provide them state of Arts Infrastructure for giving them conducive atmosphere for Learning.Therefore we feel that students must avail these academic privileges by attending classes regularly”.
